

Conference presentations

This presentation addresses the critical issue of child mortality during physical education in Russia, where 211 students died in 2016/17 due to undiagnosed cardiovascular diseases. It showcases an AI-powered telemedicine system by Micard-Lana that enables mass cardiac screening in schools, successfully identifying 4.1% of children with life-threatening pathologies during pilot testing in St. Petersburg and providing tailored health recommendations to teachers and parents.